

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: September 2025

Mid-Atlantic Neurology Consultants is committed to protecting your privacy.

This Privacy Policy explains how information is collected, used, disclosed, and safeguarded when you visit our website or interact with our services.

1. Information We Collect

The following types of information may be collected:

- Personal Information: Name, contact information, date of birth, insurance details, and medical information you provide through the patient portal, forms, or communications.
- Technical Information: IP address, browser type, device information, and usage data collected through cookies and analytics tools.
- Communication Data: Messages, emails, or other correspondence with the office.

2. How Information Is Used

Information may be used to:

- Provide medical care and manage treatment.
- Communicate regarding appointments, test results, and billing.
- Improve the website and services.
- Comply with legal and regulatory requirements (e.g., HIPAA).

3. Sharing of Information

Personal information is not sold. Information may be shared only:

- With authorized staff, physicians, or business associates necessary for care.
- With third-party service providers (e.g., billing, IT, hosting) bound by confidentiality agreements.
- As required by law, regulation, or valid legal process.
- Mobile opt in, SMS consent, and phone numbers collected for SMS communication purposes will not be shared with any third party or affiliates for marketing purposes.

4. Cookies & Tracking

The website may use cookies and similar technologies to enhance browsing experience. Browser settings can be adjusted to refuse cookies, but some features may not function properly.

5. Patient Privacy & HIPAA

The practice complies with all applicable federal and state patient privacy laws, including HIPAA. For more details, please refer to the Notice of Privacy Practices, available in the office or upon request.

6. Your Rights

Depending on location, you may have certain privacy rights, including:

- The right to access, correct, or delete personal information.
- The right to restrict or object to processing.
- The right to request a copy of medical records (subject to legal requirements).
- California residents: rights under CCPA.
- EU/UK residents: rights under GDPR.

7. Data Security

Reasonable physical, administrative, and technical safeguards are implemented to protect personal and medical information. However, no method of transmission over the internet is 100% secure.

8. Third-Party Links

This website may contain links to external sites.

Responsibility for the content, security, or privacy practices of those sites is disclaimed.

9. Updates to This Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time.

Changes will be posted on this page with an updated "Last Updated" date.
